ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE COURSE

Available at <http://www.math.dartmouth.edu/~m3w04>

EXAMS

There will be two midterm and one final exam. The Midterms will take place on Wednesday January 28, 2004, 6–8 PM and Wednesday February 18, 2004, 6:30–8:30 PM.

The Registrar’s Office schedules the Final Exam, that will occur during the period March 12–March 16, 2004. If you have to make your travel arrangements before the final exam schedule appears, do not plan to leave Hanover before March 16. Exams will not be given early to accommodate travel plans.

GRADES

The course grade will be based upon the scores on two Midterm Exams, the Final Exam, and homework WeBWorK assignments.

Two Midterm Exams (100 each)	200 points
Final Exam	150 points
WeBWorK homework	50 points
Total	400 points

HOMEWORK POLICY

The homework assignments will be submitted electronically via WeBWorK that is accessible at <http://webwork.dartmouth.edu/webwork.1.9/m3w04>

The assignments will be posted at

<http://www.math.dartmouth.edu/~m3w04/assignments.html>

WeBWorK Homework will be assigned for each class and are due at 8AM on the day of the second class period after the class when the homework was assigned. Please note that WeBWorK will not record solutions of the assignments past the closing date. Typically, assignments for Monday lectures will close at 8AM next Friday, assignments for Wednesday lectures (and any x-hour lectures) will be close at 8AM next Monday and assignments for the Friday lectures will close at 8AM next Wednesday. There will be appropriate adjustments for holidays.

Homework scores count for 50 out of 400 points of the final grade. Also please observe that there is a very strong correlation between those who do not do the homework regularly and those who receive low exam grades.

THE HONOR PRINCIPLE

On Exams: No help given or received.

On Homework: Collaboration is permitted and encouraged, but NO COPYING.

TUTORIALS

Tutorial assistance for this course to help with your homework will be available on Sundays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays 7:00–9:00 PM. Tutorials will begin on Tuesday, January 6, 2004.
